SECTION C
AFROTC Detachment 004 &
Aerospace Studies Department Policy

1. Attendance Policy:

1.1 Attendance is critical to all UNLV Aerospace Studies Department courses. AES courses are not like other college courses in that students MUST attend 80% of all classes in order to receive a passing grade (12 of 15 classes); if attendance is not 80% or higher, a student will receive a failing grade (IAW AFROTCI 36-2011 Chapter 9 policy). This policy applies to ALL AES 120 students (cadets, applicants, and participating students). This course has 15 weeks of actual attendance and accounts for Spring Break.

1.2 All absences will initially be counted as unexcused and will count against the 80% attendance requirement. At the discretion of the primary instructor, the absence may be marked as excused after the cadet completes missed objectives. Excused absences will count towards meeting the 80% attendance requirement.

1.2.1 Known absences should be coordinated with the instructor at least one week in advance (IAW UNLV policy; see Section D below).

1.2.2 Emergencies and il family and work obligations. If an unforeseen emergency precludes coordinating with the instructor in advance, the student must see/call the instructor as soon as possible after missing class. Students should contact the Aerospace Studies Department front desk at (702) 895-5313 and/or email their instructor as soon as possible to coordinate the absence.

1.2.3 An absence is considered excused when a student has coordinated with the instructor and explained his/her inability to be in class. Make-up work must be completed within one week of
If the make-up work is not completed in this scheduled time, the absence will be considered unexcused.

1.2.4 Arrivals after the designated start of class will be counted as late; any arrival after the first 15 minutes of class will be counted as absent, unless pre-coordinated with the instructor. Late arrivals will be documented in WebCampus. Please be courteous while taking your seat.

2. Classroom Behavior:

2.1 AES courses are inherently military by design, and adherence to proper customs and courtesies is expected. These customs and courtesies will be overviewed in class, but are specifically taught and practiced in separate AES classes (i.e., Leadership Labs). Above all, the classroom is a classroom, and should remain an open environment of mutual respect and learning.

2.1.1 Students should address their instructor and all department cadre by name and title (i.e., Capt Carpenter, Lt Col Williams, Ms. Sawicki, etc.).

2.1.3 Student participation in class discussions is highly encouraged, and accounts for up to 10% of the overall grade. In class, students should raise their hand and wait to be called upon. Discussions will primarily be held in class, but some online discussions may be required.

2.1.4 Students should be attentive and respectful with the instructor and fellow classmates.

2.1.5 Students should come to class prepared. Readings, assignments and quizzes are due before the start of class, unless otherwise stated in WebCampus.

2.2 Cadets should comply with Air Force dress and grooming standards (IAW AFI 36-2903).
