

RESIDENT HANDBOOK

SECTION III: TRAINING ENVIRONMENT

RESIDENT SUPERVISION OF MEDICAL STUDENTS

PURPOSE

To outline guidelines for resident supervision of medical students at the Kirk Kerkorian School of Medicine.

POLICY

- I. Programs may develop a separate policy to outline specific supervision issues distinctive to the individual training program, so long as it includes the principles stated in this document.

PROCEDURE

- I. General Principles
 - a. Residents are responsible to supervise medical students in patient care activities if all of the following applies:
 - i. The supervision is approved by the attending physician.

