

RESIDENT HANDBOOK

SECTION III: TRAINING ENVIRONMENT

RESIDENT JOB DESCRIPTION

INTRODUCTION

- I. The Kirk Kerkorian School of Medicine at UNLV residents must meet the qualifications for Education (GME) published in the American Medical Association's GME Directory.

the general supervision of appropriately residents/fellows. It is each resident's re seek assistance if there are any issues
he/she is being asked to function beyon

GENERAL STATEMENT OF RESIDENT DUTIES

While in the training program, all residents without exception will function under the supervision of a staff

- i. Resident Performance Review Committee – meets when a resident complaint is filed or a resident appeals a notice of non-reappointment or has another grievance
 - ii. Wellness Committee – this committee is charged with integrating wellness into the training programs with web-site design, curricula, and activities in collaboration with the school of medicine’s wellness director.
 - b. The Resident Forum (meets monthly in Las Vegas on the third Friday of the month). Residents must be peer selected.
- VI. Participate in institution-sponsored Interdisciplinary Grand Rounds or other program- specific didactic educational experiences.
- VII. Participate in educational programs dealing with physician impairment, substance abuse, sexual harassment, sleep deprivation, and fatigue mitigation.
- VIII. Participate in educational programs focusing on teaching specifically junior residents and medical students.

Approved by the Graduate Medical Education Committee (GMEC) April 2017