

USING THE INTERFOLIO DATA SERVICE (IDS)

WHAT IS IDS ?

IDS is a service provided by the Interfolio company, which allows you to upload your resumes and cover letters to a secure online platform. This platform then distributes your documents to the employers you have selected, ensuring that they all receive the same version of your application materials. This service is particularly useful for job seekers who are applying to multiple positions, as it simplifies the application process and ensures consistency across all submissions.