

University of Nevada Las Vegas
Department of world Languages and cultures
SPAN 369 Spanish for the Legal Professions

Teaching mode: Even though it is a class taught remotely, students will log in, using Zoom or WebEx (there will be an Announcement on Canvas with further instructions) during class time or office hours. Every student is required to use a webcam during class time. It is important that the webcam is in working condition since it is essential for conversation assignments, and activities, as well as exams. If students have any issues with their computer, Internet connection or webcam, please contact your Internet provider and/or the Office of Information and Technology for help (OIT (702)895-0777, <http://oit.unlv.edu>).

Diversity Statement

As an institution of higher learning, UNLV represents a rich diversity of human beings among its faculty, staff, and students, and is committed to aspiring to maintain a Campus environment that values that diversity. Accordingly, the University supports understanding and appreciation of all members of its community, regardless of race, sex, age, color, national origin, ethnicity, creed, religion, disability, sexual orientation, gender, gender identity, marital status, pregnancy, genetic information, veteran status, or political affiliation. Please see University Statements and Compliance, <https://www.unlv.edu/about/statements-compliance>.

A successful learning experience requires mutual respect and trust between the students and the instructor. Accordingly, the instructor asks that students be willing to listen to one another's points of view, acknowledging that there may be disagreements, keep discussion and comments on topic, and use first person, positive language when expressing their perspectives.
