

RESIDENT HANDBOOK

SECTION III: TRAINING ENVIRONMENT

ANNUAL LEAVE AT END OF TRAINING

INTRODUCTION

- I. Residents have contracts that end June 30 of the academic year.
- II. Many residents have fellowships or move out of town at the conclusion of their training.
- III. Although it would be advantageous for residents to be able to leave to relocate, not every resident can leave prior to the end of the contract.

POLICY

- I. Residents completing their training or completing a preliminary year who wish to utilize vacation weeks of the rotation.

not exceed two weeks.

vacation leave shall be used to facilitate resident rea.

by the program director, and integrated into annual lock schedule has been finalized for the year, vacation reallocation as soon as possible following of vacation time must be approved by the program individual programs' leave request policies.

becoming a reality, this issue may soon cease to be tion/administrative leave will be authorized during the more stringent to meet individual program needs.

ease resident vacation time provided by Kirk Kerkorian